Naturalization Through Military Service:

Advance Parole Document for a Humanitarian or Significant Public Benefit Parole for Former Service
Members Residing Overseas

Fact Sheet

November 2021

Former service members of the United States military who served honorably during specifically designated periods of hostilities and reside outside the United States may qualify for naturalization. To attend their naturalization interview, they may request a visa with the Department of State to enter the United States or request an Advance Parole Document for a humanitarian or significant public benefit parole to enter the United States, if eligible. This fact sheet provides information for former service members residing overseas who may seek an Advance Parole Document, which will permit them to appear at a port of entry and seek parole into the United States.

PROCESS

Eligible former service members must complete the naturalization process, including attending the naturalization interview and taking the Oath of Allegiance, in the United States. For additional information on eligibility for naturalization, see www.uscis.gov/policy-manual/volume-12-part-i-chapter-3. A former service member may request an Advance Parole Document by filing Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, concurrently with Form N-400.

HOW TO APPLY

- File Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, without fee, at www.uscis.gov/n-400 with all required evidence including:
 - ♦ A completed Form N-426, Request for Certification of Military or Naval Service (www.uscis.gov/n-426), and if you have separated from service, a photocopy of your Certificate of Release from Active Duty (DD Form 214), National Guard Report of Separation and Record of Service (NGB Form 22), or other official discharge document for all periods of service.
 - ♦ See N-400 form instructions for additional evidence requirements, including a police clearance from every place of residence outside the United States within 1 year of filing.
- If necessary, file Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, without fee, available at www.uscis.gov/i-131 with USCIS and all the evidence required. Handwrite “Military N-400” at the top of Form I-131 and in Part 2, check either 1e or 1f
 - ♦ See Form I-131 instructions for additional evidence requirements including Form I-134, Affidavit of Support www.uscis.gov/i-134
