Policy Memorandum

SUBJECT: Implementation of Section 1264(a)(1), Subtitle E, Title XII, of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, and Updated Processing Requirements for Discretionary Exemptions to Terrorism-Related Inadmissibility Grounds for Activities and Associations Relating to the Kurdistan Democratic Party and the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan

Purpose

On December 19, 2014, the President signed into law the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015 (NDAA FY 2015), Public Law (P.L.) 113-291, 128 Stat. 3292 (2014). Section 1264(a)(1) of the NDAA FY 2015 provides that the Kurdistan Democratic Party (KDP) and the Patriotic Union of Kurdistan (PUK) are excluded from the definition of Tier III organizations under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 212(a)(3)(B)(vi)(III). Previously, on September 21, 2009, the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Secretary of State, in consultation with each other and with the Attorney General, exercised their authority not to apply the terrorism-related grounds of inadmissibility (TRIG) contained in INA § 212(d)(3)(B) for certain activities and associations involving the Iraqi National Congress (INC), the KDP, and PUK. On January 23, 2010, the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Acting Deputy Director issued guidance on implementation of these exercises of discretionary authority.<sup>1</sup>

This Policy Memorandum (PM) explains the relevant changes in the law and modifies existing instructions for USCIS adjudicators for processing of benefit applications where an applicant is found to have activities or associations with the KDP and PUK.<sup>2</sup> Guidance regarding adjudication of cases relating to the INC contained in the January 23, 2010 PM remains in effect.

Scope

Unless specifically exempted herein, this PM applies to and binds all USCIS employees.

Authorities

- INA section 212(d)(3)(B); 8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(3)(B).
- National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, P.L. 113-291, § 1264, 128 Stat. 3292 (2014).

<sup>1</sup> See Lauren Kielsmeier, Acting Deputy Director, USCIS, "Implementation of New Discretionary Exemption under INA Section 212(d)(3)(B)(i) for Activities Related to the INC, KDP, and PUK," January 23, 2010.

<sup>2</sup> This PM expressly does not apply to persons whom a USCIS officer knows, or has reasonable ground to believe, is engaged in or is likely to engage after entry in any terrorist activity. INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(II).

- Exercise of Authority under section 212(d)(3)(B)(i) of the INA, regarding activities or associations relating to the KDP, signed September 21, 2009.
- Exercise of Authority under section 212(d)(3)(B)(i) of the INA, regarding activities or associations relating to the PUK, signed September 21, 2009.

Background

INA section 212(a)(3)(B) renders inadmissible and ineligible for most immigration benefits an alien who engages in terrorist activity with any organization that, at the time of the interaction, was a terrorist organization. In turn, INA section 212(d)(3)(B)(i) authorizes the Secretary to exempt such TRIG in certain cases. On September 21, 2009, Secretary Napolitano and Secretary Clinton issued exemptions that authorized USCIS and consular officers not to apply the TRIG to certain qualified aliens who had activities and affiliations with the INC, KDP, and PUK. On December 19, 2014, the President signed the NDAA FY 2015 into law. Section 1264(a)(1) of the NDAA FY 2015 provides that the KDP and PUK are excluded from the definition of a Tier III organization, under INA section 212(a)(3)(B)(vi)(III).

Policy

Pursuant to section 1264(a)(1) of the NDAA FY 2015, USCIS will no longer consider the KDP or PUK to be terrorist organizations under INA section 212(a)(3)(B)(vi)(III).<sup>3</sup> However, aliens having certain activities or associations with the KDP and PUK may continue to be inadmissible; such aliens may be eligible for and warrant an exemption from TRIG pursuant to the Exercises of Authority issued in 2009.<sup>4</sup>

Implementation

I. General Considerations

A. Identifying Individuals Who May Be Subject to TRIG Due to Activities or Associations with the KDP and PUK

Adjudicators will review benefit applications, supporting documentation, and testimony for indications of activities or associations relating to the KDP and PUK. In all cases, adjudicators will review for and elicit information about all TRIG-related activities or associations.

B. Country Conditions

When considering an application, adjudicators must familiarize themselves with country conditions information collected by the Refugee, Asylum, and International Operations Research Unit and/or research information made available through their headquarter (HQ) components. In addition to research products generated by USCIS, open source reference documents produced by other agencies may be available from the Department of State (DOS) (see, e.g., the annual DOS Country Reports on

<sup>3</sup> The Secretaries of State and Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, may suspend application of section 1264(a)(1) for either or both the KDP or PUK in their sole unreviewable discretion. Such determinations must be reported to various congressional committees. NDAA FY 2015, P.L. 113-291, § 1264(a)(2), 128 Stat. 3292 (2014).

Human Rights Practices) or through the Department of Homeland Security \(DHS\) Library (available on the intranet through DHS Connect).

II. Aliens Who Are No Longer Inadmissible for Activities or Associations Relating to the KDP and PUK, Pursuant to Section 1264(a)(1) of the NDAA FY 2015

As a result of this legislation, the KDP and PUK are excluded from the definition of undesignated terrorist organizations under INA section 212(a)(3)(B)(vi)(III). Therefore, an alien who carried out any of the following activities in association with the KDP or PUK at any time is no longer inadmissible on account of the following TRIG, and does not require an exemption:<sup>5</sup>

- Solicited funds or other things of value on behalf of the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(IV)(cc);
- Solicited an individual for membership in the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(V)(cc);
- Committed an act that provided material support to the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(VI)(dd);
- Is a representative of the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(IV)(aa);
- Is a member of the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(VI);
- Persuaded others to support the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(VII); or
- Received military-type training from the KDP or PUK – INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(VIII).

III. Aliens Whose Inadmissibility for TRIG Activities or Associations Relating to the KDP and PUK May Be Exempted as a Matter of Discretion

A. Continuing Applicability of the KDP and PUK Exercises of Authority

Aliens may be exempted from the activities listed below under the KDP or PUK Exercises of Authority, if committed in association with either of these groups, as applicable, with the requirement that no such activity targeted civilians. Special care must be taken in such cases to determine whether civilians were targeted or harmed during the alien's activities and whether the applicant merits an exemption under the totality of the circumstances, in the exercise of discretion, when any of the following inadmissibility grounds are applicable, where the alien:

- Committed or incited to commit, under circumstances indicating an intention to cause death or serious bodily injury, a terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(I);
- Prepared or planned a terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(II);
- Gathered information on potential targets for terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(III);
- Solicited funds or other things of value for a terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(IV)(aa);
- Solicited an individual to engage in conduct otherwise described in INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv), other than those involving activity carried out on behalf of a "terrorist organization" - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(V)(aa);

<sup>5</sup> Section 1264(b) of the NDAA FY 2015, relating to aliens with activities undertaken in opposition to the regime of the Arab Socialist Ba'ath Party and Saddam Hussein, and relating to aliens who serve or served as senior officials of the Kurdistan Regional Government or the federal government of the Republic of Iraq, applies only to applicants for nonimmigrant visas. NDAA FY 2015, P.L. 113-291, § 1264(b)(1)-(2), 128 Stat. 3292 (2014). Therefore, these provisions are inapplicable to USCIS benefit adjudications.

- Committed an act the alien knew, or reasonably should have known, afforded material support for the commission of a terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(VI)(aa); or to any individual who the alien knew, or reasonably should have known, has committed or plans to commit a terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(VI)(bb);
- Has, under circumstances indicating an intention to cause death or serious bodily harm, incited terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(III);
- Is a representative of a political, social, or other group that endorses or espouses terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(IV)(bb); or
- Endorses or espouses terrorist activity or persuades others to endorse or espouse terrorist activity - INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(VII).

B. Other Possible TRIG Inadmissibilities

While this guidance is limited to certain activities or associations relating to the KDP and PUK, if additional terrorism-related grounds apply, adjudicators must verify whether other available exemptions exist for those other grounds and determine whether the applicant is eligible for those exemptions. Earlier Exercises of Authority that provide for exemption of particular activities or associations remain in effect and may be used as appropriate for activity not covered by this exemption. See relevant implementation guidance for any other applicable Exercises of Authority.

All applicable exemptions must be adjudicated according to the guidance issued for each exemption. An adjudicator may grant an exemption for the provision of insignificant material support under this policy memo only if there are available exemptions for all applicable TRIG-related activities, and the adjudicator has recommended an exemption for each inadmissibility ground. If an exemption is not available for each inadmissibility ground, the adjudicator should refer the case to the appropriate headquarters program office for further instructions, including whether to place the case on hold.

C. Threshold Eligibility

To be considered for an exemption, an applicant must satisfy the following threshold requirements:

- Establish that he or she is otherwise eligible for the immigration benefit or protection being sought;
- Undergo and pass all required background and security checks;
- Fully disclose in all relevant applications and interviews with U.S. Government representatives and agents, the nature and circumstances of all activities or associations falling within the scope of INA section 212(a)(3)(B);<sup>6</sup>
- Establish that he or she has not participated in, or knowingly provided material support to, terrorist activities that targeted noncombatant persons;
- Establish that he or she poses no danger to the safety and security of the United States; and
- Establish that he or she warrants an exemption in the totality of the circumstances as discussed in the following paragraph.

<sup>6</sup> To fully disclose TRIG-related activities and associations entails credible, persuasive, consistent, and complete representations by the applicant of all involvement in such activities. If this level of disclosure has not been provided, the applicant has failed to meet this threshold criterion and is ineligible for exemption consideration.

Questions relating to the threshold requirements for this exercise of the exemption authority must be directed through the component chain of command to the component TRIG Working Group point of contact.

D. Discretion

For those applicants who have met all other threshold requirements, adjudicators will consider whether the applicant warrants a discretionary exemption in the totality of the circumstances. When considering the totality of the circumstances, factors to be considered, in addition to the threshold factors stated above, may include, among others:

- The length and nature of the TRIG-related activity;
- The amount, type, frequency, and nature of the applicant's activity;
- The nature of the organization's activities and the applicant's awareness of those activities;
- The applicant's conduct since engaging in the TRIG-related activity;
- The length of time that has elapsed since the applicant engaged in the TRIG-related activity;
- Whether the applicant's activities targeted U.S. interests; and
- Any other relevant factors.

IV. Making the Exemption Determination

A. Family Members

The inadmissibility of family members should be reviewed in accordance with existing law and agency policies. Under INA section 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(IX), a spouse or child is inadmissible if the related alien is inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(3)(B) for actions occurring within the last 5 years, unless the spouse or child qualifies for one of two statutory exceptions.<sup>7</sup> In accordance with agency policy, a spouse or child may be considered for an exemption if the activity of the related alien may be exempted, even if the related alien is not seeking a benefit or protection from USCIS. Furthermore, a spouse or child does not require an exemption relative to any acts for which the related alien has already been or is being exempted.<sup>8</sup>

B. Vetting Cases for Possible National Security Concern

Adjudicators will follow existing agency procedures when a possible national security concern arises during the course of the adjudication, including through security checks.

C. Documenting the Exemption Determination

Using the 212(a)(3)(B) Exemption Worksheet (revised August-10-2012), adjudicators will document exemption determinations as follows:

- Determine threshold eligibility;

<sup>7</sup> A spouse or child is not inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(3)(B)(i)(IX) if: (1) he or she did not know or should not reasonably have known of the TRIG activity; or (2) an adjudicator has reasonable grounds to believe that the spouse or child has renounced the TRIG activity. INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(ii).

<sup>8</sup> See Jonathan Scharfen, Deputy Director, USCIS, "Processing the Discretionary Exemption to the Inadmissibility Ground for Providing Material Support to Certain Terrorist Organizations," May 24, 2007.

- Describe the applicant's associations or activities with the group, noting any involvement in violence or other activities of concern;
- In Section IV, check "Group Based Exemption" and enter "KDP" or "PUK," as applicable; and
- In Section V, indicate whether the adjudicator recommends granting or denying the exemption.

Each Component will instruct its adjudicators on the requisite levels of review.

D. Record-Keeping Requirements

USCIS will maintain records on the number of cases considered under the KDP and PUK exemptions and their outcome. Statistics will be consolidated on a quarterly basis, at a minimum. These statistics will be used to provide information to the interagency and stakeholders as well as to inform the content of the required annual report to Congress.

E. Effect of Exemption on Future Adjudications

An exemption determination made under the KDP and PUK Exercises of Authority can inform but shall not control a decision regarding any subsequent benefit or protection application.

F. Processing or Placement on Hold of Certain Cases

If a case involving an applicant or beneficiary considered under the PUK or KDP Exercises of Authority does not satisfy all threshold requirements for consideration of an exemption and does not meet the requirements of the hold policy, the requested benefit should be denied. The applicant should be issued a Notice to Appear (NTA) in appropriate cases after review in accordance with standard operating procedures, including USCIS' NTA policy.

If a case does meet the threshold requirements but an exemption is denied in the totality of the circumstances, the application should be denied (or, if pertaining to an asylum application, referred as appropriate) after appropriate review in accordance with the above procedures. The applicant should be issued an NTA in appropriate cases after review in accordance with standard operating procedures, including USCIS' NTA policy.

If it is determined that the case does not meet the threshold requirements listed above, but otherwise meets the criteria enumerated under the current hold policy, the application should be placed on hold pending future exercises of the Secretary's discretionary exemption authority. This includes cases being held under the current hold policy involving applicants who do not qualify for this exercise of the exemption authority. The applicant should be issued an NTA in appropriate cases after review in accordance with standard operating procedures, including USCIS' NTA policy.
